6. The fact that a company which is a resident of a Contracting State controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other Contracting State, or which carries on business in that other State (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.

2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article, where an enterprise of a Contracting State carries on business in the other Contracting State through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall in each Contracting State be attributed to that permanent establishment the profits which it might be expected to make if it were a distinct and separate enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing wholly independently with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.
3. In the determination of the profits of a permanent establishment, there shall be allowed as deductions expenses which are incurred for the purposes of the business of the permanent establishment including executive and general administrative expenses so incurred, whether in the State in which the permanent establishment is situated or elsewhere, in accordance with the provisions of the taxation laws of that State.
4. Insofar as it has been customary in a Contracting State to determine the profits to be attributed to a permanent establishment on the basis of an apportionment of the total profits of the enterprise to its various parts, nothing in paragraph 2

2. Where a Contracting State includes, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1, in the profits of an enterprise of that State - and taxes accordingly - profits on which an enterprise of the other Contracting State has been charged to tax in that other State and where the competent authorities of the Contracting States agree, upon consultation, that all or part of the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to the enterprise of the first-mentioned State if the conditions made between the two enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises, then that other State shall make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of the tax charged therein on those agreed profits. In determining such adjustment, due regard shall be had to the other provisions of this Agreement.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2, items of income of a resident of a Contracting State not dealt with in the foregoing Articles of this Agreement and arising in the other Contracting State may also be taxed in that other State.

Article 23

ELIMINATION OF DOUBLE TAXATION

1. In the Sultanate of Oman, double taxation shall be avoided as follows:

Where a resident of the Sultanate of Oman derives income which, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, may be taxed in Singapore, the Sultanate of Oman shall allow as a deduction from the tax on the income of the resident an amount equal to the income tax paid in Singapore, whether directly or by deduction. Such deduction shall not, however, exceed that part of the income tax (as computed before the deduction is given) which is attributable to the income which may be taxed in Singapore.

2. In Singapore, double taxation shall be avoided as follows:

Where a resident of Singapore derives income from the Sultanate of Oman which, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, may be taxed in the Sultanate of Oman, Singapore shall, subject to its laws regarding the allowance as a credit against Singapore tax of tax payable in any country other than Singapore, allow the Omani tax paid, whether directly or by deduction, as a credit against the Singapore tax payable on the income of that resident. Where such income is a dividend paid by a company which is a resident of the Sultanate of Oman to a resident of Singapore which is a company owning directly or indirectly not less than ten (10) percent of the share capital of the first-mentioned company, the credit shall take into account the Omani tax paid by that company on the portion of its profits out of which the dividend is paid.

3. The tax payable in a Contracting State mentioned in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be deemed to include the tax which would have been payable but for the tax incentives granted under the laws of that Contracting State and which are designed to promote economic development.
4. The provisions of paragraph 3 shall apply for ten (10) years from the date on which the Agreement takes effect, as long as the Agreement is in force, but the competent authorities of the Contracting States may consult each other to determine whether this period shall be extended.

Article 24

MUTUAL AGREEMENT PROCEDURE

1. Where a person considers that the actions of one or both of the Contracting States result or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, he may, irrespective of the remedies provided by the domestic law of those States, present his case to the competent authority of the Contracting State of which he is a resident. The case must be presented within two years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.
2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting State, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the Agreement. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time-limits in the domestic law of the Contracting States.

3. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement.
4. The competent authorities of the Contracting States may communicate with each other directly for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.

Article 25

EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall exchange such information as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Agreement or of the domestic laws of the Contracting States concerning taxes covered by this Agreement insofar as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to the Agreement, in particular for the prevention of fiscal evasion. Any information received by a Contracting State shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic laws of that State and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) concerned with the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, or the determination of appeals in relation to, the taxes covered by the Agreement. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions.
2. In no case shall the provisions of paragraph 1 be construed so as to impose on a Contracting State the obligation:
 - a) to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and the administrative practice of that or of the other Contracting State;
 - b) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Contracting State;
 - c) to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process or information, the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).

Article 26

MEMBERS OF DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS AND CONSULAR POSTS

Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the fiscal privileges of members of diplomatic missions or consular posts under the general rules of international law or under the provisions of special agreements.

Article 27

in respect of tax chargeable for any year of assessment commencing on or after the first day of January in the second calendar year following the year in which this Agreement enters into force.

Article 28

- a) in the Sultanate of Oman:
 - i) in respect of taxes withheld at source: for amounts paid or credited on or after the first day of January in the calendar year immediately following that in which the notice of such termination is given, and

PROTOCOL

At the signing of the Agreement between the Government of the Sultanate of Oman and the Government of the Republic of Singapore for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (hereinafter referred to as “the Agreement”), the undersigned have agreed upon the following provisions which form an integral part of the Agreement :

1. With reference to the Agreement:

The term “statutory body” means a body constituted by an Act of Parliament in Singapore or under Royal Decree in the Sultanate of Oman whose principal objective is to engage in non-commercial activities.

2. With reference to Article 4:

For the purposes of paragraph 1, the term “resident of a Contracting State” shall also include a statutory body of a Contracting State. In the case of the Sultanate of Oman, it shall include the State General Reserve Fund.

3. With reference to Articles 8 and 13:

- a) For the purposes of paragraph 4 of Article 13 and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 4, the term “resident of a Contracting State” in relation to the alienation of aircraft operated in international traffic or moveable property pertaining to the operation of such aircraft shall, in the case of the Sultanate of Oman, include Gulf Air.
- b) If an air transport enterprise of the Republic of Singapore with respect to profits or gains referred to in Article 8 and paragraph 4 of Article 13 is charged to tax of the kind referred to in Article 2 in one of the shareholding States of Gulf Air, the exemption from Singapore tax under Article 8 and paragraph 4 of Article 13 shall cease to apply insofar as Gulf Air is concerned and the Contracting States shall open negotiations without delay with a view of determining the taxation of Gulf Air.
- c) When the Agreement comes into force, the Agreement signed on 29 June 1998 between the Government of the Sultanate of Oman and the Government of the Republic of Singapore for the Avoidance of Double Taxation of Income derived from International Air Transport shall, except for the Protocol to the second-mentioned Agreement, cease to apply to any tax year or year of assessment, as the case may be, in respect of which the first-mentioned Agreement has effect.

4. With reference to Article 10:

In the case of Singapore, where under its current taxation laws, dividends are paid by a company which is a resident of Singapore to a resident of the Sultanate of Oman who is the beneficial owner of such dividends, there is no tax in Singapore which is chargeable on dividends in addition to the tax chargeable in respect of the profits or income of the company. Under the full imputation system adopted, the tax deductible from dividends is a tax on the profits or income of the company and not a tax on dividends within the meaning of this Article.

5. With reference to Articles 15 and 21:

For the purposes of paragraph 2(a) of Article 15 and paragraph 1(b) of Article 21, the term “fiscal year”, in the case of Singapore, means the calendar year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Protocol.
